Your child's going to love math!

NUMBER EXPLOSION IS an adventure into the wonderful world of mathematics. Your child will be challenged to think outside the box to develop their problem solving skills with great problems and games. Getting lost and discovering solution paths will make your child's inner mathematician shine brightly.

Our next session, Blowing it out of Proportion is an exploration into proportional thinking. Your child will think like an Egyptian, challenge Vitruvius, prevent an explosion and so much more.
